

NATURE CONSERVATION INTERNS X2 (12 MONTHS CONTRACT) 2015-08-02

The above mentioned positions are available in the Heritage Department at Robben Island Museum. These positions seek to broaden knowledge of nature conservation and give hands-on experience to young graduates from Nature Conservation academic background.

Key performance areas:

- Assist with planning and implementation of environmental projects i.e. alien plants control, problem animal control, coastal clean-ups, controlled burn projects, rehabilitation projects, etc.
- Assist with policy development and EIA processes.
- Participate on the ongoing research programmes i.e. vegetation assessment, endangered sea bird monitoring, etc and collection of data.
- Assist with the observation, managing and protection of marine, mammals, insects and plants population of Robben Island and its surrounding zone.
- Assist with the Unit's administrative duties.
- Assist with the supervision of the Horticultural Team.

Experience and Technical Skills:

- National Diploma in Nature Conservation.
- Computer literacy
- Valid driver's licence
- Communication and leadership skills

RIM is an EE, AA, employer and reserves the right the right not to make an appointment if suitable candidate(s) are not found. Forward a detailed CV, accompanied by Certified Copies your ID and Qualification Certificates as well as Contactable Referees, to recruitment@robben-island.org.za or fax 021 425 2131 by no later than 02 August 2015. Note: If you do not hear from us within 30 days, please consider your application unsuccessful.